Supervisory Responsibility

This position has no direct supervisory responsibility but does serve as a coach and mentor for other positions in the department.

Work Environment

This job operates in a jail property room in the partially environmentally controlled Utah County Security Center. This position occasionally exposes the incumbent to strong odors, including cleaning chemicals. This job requires frequent contact with inmates, which presents a risk of bodily injury and exposure to unpleasant, dangerous, or even life-threatening situations. Work may expose the incumbent to individuals who are agitated, angry, uncooperative, or otherwise upset. This role routinely uses standard office equipment such as a laptop, desktop, smartphone, photocopiers, shredders, and filing cabinets. The noise level in the work environment is usually moderate. The incumbent may be required to drive Utah County owned vehicles in the course of conducting County business and must abide by the Utah County Vehicle Policy.

Physical Demands

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job.

While performing the duties of this job, the employee is required to use manual dexterity to handle, feel, and operate objects, tools and controls, and reach with hands and arms. The employee is frequently required to stand, talk, and hear. Specific vision abilities by this job include close vision and ability to adjust focus. The employee is required to type, file and lift supplies up to twenty (20) pounds but may occasionally need to move objects weighing up to fifty (50) pounds. The employee occasionally drives a motor vehicle.
